

Contents

Acknowledgements	11
My Position as a Scholar and a Rabbinical Student	13
Abbreviations.....	17
0. Introduction.....	19
0.1 Introduction of Bavli , Gittin 55b-56b	19
0.1.1 Textual Sources: Bavli , Gittin 55b-56b	22
0.1.2 The Textual History of the Main Sources Eikhah Rabbah, Bavli , and Avot deRabbi Nathan, and their Reprerentation in the Framework of this Book.....	29
0.1.3 The Story of Yochanan’s Escape as a Founding Myth	34
0.2 Methodology: Bodies and Spaces in Rabbinic Literature	39
0.2.1 Literature, Not History.....	39
0.2.2 Bodies, Food, and Spaces in the Realm of Rabbinic Literature	41
0.2.3 Research Questions: A Second Order Construction of a Paradigmatic Shift Described in the Stories of Destruction by Means of Metaphors of Bodies and Spaces	46
1. Female Hunger and Humiliation: Martha bat Boethus	49
1.1 On Carpets and Dirt: At the Dawn of the Destruction	52
1.1.1 Spacial Categories: Martha’s Way into to Realm of the Temple	58
1.2 From Fragrances to Excrements	59
1.2.1 The Fallen Beloved: Shir haShirim.....	63
1.2.2 Eating Children: Eikhah	64
1.3 Death and Flour.....	67
1.3.1 The Loss of the Body of the Temple.....	67

1.3.2	The Narrative of a Historical Shift Transmitted through the Five Senses.....	73
1.3.3	A Woman who Ran Out of Food	81
1.3.4	On Empty Shells and Worthless Treasures.....	86
1.4	Begging the Rabbis for Food.....	90
2.	Embodied Liminality: Rabbi Zadok	97
2.1	Turning away from Blood and Meat	98
2.1.1	‘Surrogate Stomachs’ for God.....	101
2.1.2	The eglab arufab	104
2.1.3	The End of Temple Offerings	109
2.2	Zadok’s Fast	113
2.2.1	Ritual and Performance Studies.....	115
2.2.2	Zadok’s Fast as Performed Theology: To Deal with the Sacred and/or the Demonic (7).....	119
2.2.3	Zadok’s Behavior as Politics: To Teach, Persuade, or Convince (6).....	121
2.2.4	Zadok’s Fasts as to Mark a Change of his (Social) Identity (3)	122
2.2.5	Zadok’s Behavior from a Psychological Point of View	126
2.2.6	Feeding Zadok: The Healing Function (5) of the Story	129
2.2.7	Spacial Categories: Zadok’s Way into the Realm of the Margins	133
2.2.8	Zadok’s Cure and Martha’s Death: Flour.....	138
2.3	Refusing to Take Part.....	140
2.3.1	Strange Meat and a Stranger’s Body	145
2.3.2	The Last Fig	150
3.	Life through Flour: Rabbi Yochanan ben Zakkai.....	153
3.1	Fleeing the Famine	155

3.2	A Jar Full of Honey.....	162
3.3	Physical Memory	171
4.	Conclusions: Leaving the Temple, Moving to (-wards) Yavneh : The Stories as a Window into Rabbinic Culture	175
	Bibliography.....	183
	Expressions as Used in This Thesis	193